

Unifeye Platform

The ultimate software for Augmented Reality

Unifeye is the ultimate software platform for the technology: Augmented Reality (AR). As an universal interface between the real- and computer generated world, the Unifeye platform enables with its flexible and modular configuration Augmented Reality solutions for the most diverse branches and divisions possible.

Unifeye

Viewer

Web client for 3D product visualization in the real surrounding

Presenter

Presentation software for the entire sales force

Experience

Software for high experience brand staging

Print

Connection between classic print media and 3D content

Design

Professional tool for 3D-designers

Mobile

Mobile client for mobile Augmented Reality applications

Prototyping

Software for prototype building and design evaluation

Planner

Software tool for industrial planning

SDK

Professional developer interface

General features & benefits of the Unifeye platform:

- Comprehensive AR-features combined in an open Framework
- Scalability thanks to I/O independence and framework setup
- Ready- and easy-to-use GUI for efficient testing, prototyping or presentations
- Standard conformance for quick application development and deployment

metaio
AUGMENTED SOLUTIONS

www.metaio.com